

Process Control Lab

Laboratory Objective

The main objective of Process Control Laboratory is to demonstrate to the students. The basic principles of control theory of different processes and scaling up of laboratory level to large industrial scale.

Laboratory Description

The laboratory has 42 m² area includes 4 equipment to conduct experiments that deal with control of flow level, temperature pressure, to maintain temperature, position control of an object and rotary speed control of an electric motor.

