

Reaction Engineering Laboratory

Laboratory Objective

The main objective of Chemical Reaction Engineering Laboratory is enabling the students of realizing the principles of scaling up of laboratory reactions to large industrial scale.

Laboratory Description

The laboratory has 42 m² area includes 5 equipment to conduct experiments that deal with reactions in batch and continuous reactors at different reaction conditions, in addition to basic chemicals and tools required for conducting the experiments.

