

Course Outline

Course title	Accounting Research	Course code	ACCT 424
Program	Bachelor in Accounting	Level	11
Prerequisite	Advanced Accounting and External Auditing	Credit hours	4

Main learning outcomes:

- Knowledge of the basic skills of scientific research in accounting research.
- Knowledge of the structure of accounting research.
- Knowing the steps of preparing accounting research.
- Knowledge of scientific research methods.
- Knowing the sources and tools for collecting and analyzing data in accounting research.
- Knowledge of writing reports in accounting research.

Topics to be covered:

- The nature and characteristics of accounting research
- The structure of accounting research
- Steps and procedures for accounting research
- Theories, previous studies and hypothesis development
- Research Methodology
- Methodology in accounting research
- Study variables and variables measurement
- Data collection sources and tools
- Population, sample and sampling
- Data Collection, displaying and analysis
- Writing reports in accounting research

Required textbooks:

Main textbook:

- Accounting Research, Abdullah bin Abdul Razzaq Al-Hamoud, (Second Edition), Dar Al-Muqahem for Publishing and Distribution, 1444 AH 2022 AD.

Other references:

- Research Methods in Accounting, Malcolm Smith, Arabization and Revision. Obaid bin Saeed Al-Mutairi, Shaher Falah El Aroud and Muhammad Abd al-Shakour Shehata, Dar al-Marikh Publishing House, 1435 AH / 2014 AD

Grading:

Mid-Term assessment (60):

- Mid-term test (20)
- Homework (10)
- Preparing and presenting individual and group assignments and projects (30).

Final exam (40)