

Scientific visit to the drinking water treatment plant (Al-Boweab)

The Department of Chemical Engineering held a scientific visit to Al-Boweab drinking water treatment plant from underground wells. The plant and its technologies are one of the main applications of the field of chemical engineering, which attracts a large number of graduates of chemical engineering to work in this field

